BREPOLiS

The Standard Encyclopaedia for Medieval Studies

The Lexikon des Mittelalters is an indispensable tool for medievalists across all disciplines. It deals with all branches of Medieval Studies and covers the period from 300 to 1500 AD/CE for the whole of Europe and parts of Western Asia and North Africa. The ancient roots of Western civilisation, as well as neighbouring civilisations, such as the Byzantine, the Arabic and the Jewish, occupy a prominent position in the encyclopaedia.

The information of the printed edition has been enriched by Brepols Publishers with English headwords, inbuilt translation aids and live links to a Cumulative Bibliography (via the International Medieval Bibliography and the Bibliographie de civilisation médiévale).

LexMA is fully integrated with the International Encyclopaedia for the Middle Ages – Supplement to LexMA, a new encyclopaedia offering supplements that complete or supplement the coverage already offered by LexMA.

Features of LexMA Online

A Supplement to LexMA Online

The International Encyclopaedia for the Middle Ages (IEMA) – A Supplement to Lexikon des Mittelalters is produced under the joint auspices of the Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies at UCLA and Brepols Publishers. Its Editorial Board comprises scholars from universities in Europe (Hamburg, Oxford, Leeds, Poitiers and Budapest) and the United States (UCLA, Yale and Columbia).

The purpose of IEMA is to supplement LexMA with newly-written commissioned articles, fully peer-reviewed as well as with articles from reference books.

IEMA draws some of its information from the following books:

❯ Fasti Ecclesiae Gallicanae. Répertoire prosopographique des évêques, dignitaires et chanoines de France de 1200 à 1500 (Turnhout: Brepols)

❯ Die Bischöfe des Heiligen Römischen Reiches 1198-1448, by Erwin Gatz (Berlin: Duncker & Humblot, 2001)

❯ Nationaal Biografisch Woordenboek (Brussel: Koninklijke Vlaamse Academie van België voor Wetenschappen en Kunsten, 1964-)

❯ Biskupi kościoła w Polsce w latach 965-1999, by Piotr Nitecki

❯ Normannia monastica (Xᵉ-XIIᵉ siècle). Prosopographie des abbés bénédictins, by Véronique Gazeau (Caen, Publications du CRAHM, 2008)
